Schmuki to Complete Residencies

June 3, 2013

Ceramics Professor Jeff Schmuki will complete several residencies this summer, including environmental sessions at the Kimmel, Harding, Nelson Center for the Arts in Nebraska City, Neb., and the McColl Center for Visual Art in Waverly, AL. Together, the McColl Center, Power2FGive Organization and Schmuki raised $10,000 to progress Schmuki's Moth Project beyond demonstration. Participants will help plant permanent gardens with flowers that attract the pollinators and then capture, identify, and release insects at night.
